ATTEMPTS TO MURDER SON

Klink Takes a Shot at Son and Daughter Also Wounded

Thomas Klink, who shot his son and daughter at Warm Springs, Alameda county, last Monday at one time conducted Uncle Tom's Cabin near San Bruno. Klink had a quarrel with his son and the latter threw soda water bottles at his father. Bullets were exchanged and the young man was shot in the groin but will recover. In the melee the daughter was slightly wounded. Mr. Klink in an interview said:

"Monday night, while I was behind my bar, the boy came in and demanded money. I refused him point blank. He became enraged and with a curse hurled a soda water bottle at my head. I dodged a rain of bottles, and although I am crippled, reached the dining room, which adjoins the bar room. Tom followed me and hit me on the head with a chair. That was more than I couldstand, and I went back to the bar room to secure my revolver, while he ran upstairs.

"When I reached the stairway I was met with a shower of bullets. I think he fired three times. I fired once and the bullet struck the boy in the left thigh.

"How my daughter Mary, was hurt I don't know, but I suppose the bullet that struck Tom glanced and struck her right forearm, as she ran from her room to ascertain the trouble. She received only a slight scratch.

"My son was taken to San Jose in an automobile by some one my wife summoned from Irvington. As for myself, I bound up my wounded head with a napkin saturated with whiskey and went to bed. I was surprised this morning when a constable came to arrest me.

"My son has caused all sorts of trouble in the family and about five months ago my daughter eloped and married a chauffeur named Frank, whose other name I do not know. All I know about his is that he formerly worked for E. W. Hopkins at Menlo Park. Mary is about 18 years old and she came home to visit us last Sunday."

The Central California company, the president of which is E. E. Calvin, of the Southern Pacific, has determined to build its road from Niles to Dumbarton Point and thence to Redwood City and San Mateo, instead of from Newark as was originally intended. The road will be thirty miles in length.

Amended articles of incorporation, setting forth the new route, were filed in the office of the county clerk of San Francisco yesterday. N. T. Smith, William Hood, J. E. Foulds, E. E. Calvin and Frank Shay are the directors.

SOUND PHILOSOPHY.

The following editorial appeared in the San Francisco Examiner last Saturday. It contains sound philosophy and may be read with interest and profit by the people of this county. Now is the time to buya home in San Mateo county when real estate is comparatively cheap. In a few years land will be so high that poor people cannot buy it. It is not exaggeration to say that this section will be a net work of railroads in a very short time and thiswill have a tendency to send prices of property skyward. Three electric railroads from San Jose to San Francisco will soon be in course of construction. It is well known that the Santa Fe railroad company is anxious to secure an entrance through the peninsula and also the Western Pacific company desires a terminal on this side of the bay. With the completion of the Dumbarton line and the Ocean Shore railroad the county will be actually girdled with railroads. Now is the time to buy a home in the fairest portion of the State of California whil the property is cheap.

Many men during the next few years—and during the next year especially—will lay the foundation of independence through real estate investments, wisely made.

No man has yet correctly estimated the results of electricity as the universal carrying power.

The man who buys wisely today wil obtain for himself a home at once, and very probably financial independence in the future.

There is just one kind of property that cannot be stolen from you—that is a piece of the surface of this earth.

The only thing that we know to be real is that solid earth upon which we can stamp our feet. And the man who can stamp his feet and say, "This piece of the earth belongs to me," is the wise man, taking advantage of present conditions to protect himself and those dependent upon him.

In real estate—as in all other directions—there are infinite chances of being gouged. The fool and his money can be parted almost as easily in a real estate as in a mining stock deal. There are traps set for the fool in every market.

We say "almost as easily," for, after all, the man who buys and pays for and owns a piece of land has something to show for his money.

Many a man has thought to overreach a neighbor and sold him a piece of land subsequently worth a fortune above the selling price.

It is hard to point to any piece of ground in or near this extraordinary city that will not shortly be worth more than the most extravagant price asked for it today.

The rebuilding of San Francisco is well under way. Within a dozen years it will grow to be the city of a million inhabitants. The time is coming when San Francisco will no longer be the compact city—it will be the scattered city, taking in its suburbs about the bay in one great municipality. Improved transportation will make the individual home and lot replace the apartment house or the unhealthy tenement. Greater San Francisco will include hundreds of square miles.

It will be difficult for some time to buy land that will fail to pay the investor well.

But the careful man will seek and find the best investment. He will have his home in mind, saying:

"I'll live on the land while it grows in value, putting interest and taxes in place of rent. When the price is high enough, I'll sell for a sufficient profit, and meanwhile I shall have acquired another home site on cheaper grounds—just as good—for my home.

First, the wise buyer will look for a healthy site.

Second, he will study the direction of the movement of population, knowing that where the crowd goes high prices will go.

Third, and most important, he will examine comparative prices and make sure that he is getting for each dollar of hard-earned money a good dollar's worth of good land.

money today can make himself rich

A man with a small accumulation of in ten years if he will buy land wisely.

If you have some money and can pay a little more each year, go into real estate. This is the time. This is the very beginning of the new and extraordinary transportation movement.

In a short time what the wise man knows now the whole public will know—it will be too late then for bargains. Buy all you can carry—but not one dollar's worth more than you can carry. Allow for sickness and possible lack of work. Don't risk your future in the idea of making it. Keep within your means; use your best judgment; avoid false bargains. Investigate and inspect for yourself—then get a title to good land in or near this city.

ONLY A GIRL

But She'll Always Have Choice of the Boys

[SUPPOSED TO BE WRITTEN BY COLE STAFFORD.]

I'll sing you a song of my baby,
The loviest child ever seen;
Amongst all the other girl babies,
She holds up her head like a queen.
She is perfect in form and in feature
My constant delight and my joy;
The only fault I can find with her
Is—that she was not born a boy.

But then, for a girl, she's a wonder
Who e're saw such eyes, and such hair?
Such shoulders, so plump and so dimpled,
Complexion, so rosy and fair?
Her fat little feet are so pretty!
The hands, they are dainty and small;
Her teeth will look like pearls, when she's laughing;
But—she's only a girl after all!

You know we may have other daughters—
A help for their mother you see—
But I wanted the first one a boy though
To be a companion for me.
Can you wonder at my disappointment,
When I found that a girl had been born?—
Though I didn't swear once, on my honor,
Still, I did feel a little forlorn.

Our girls will grow up to be women
We trust they'll be modest and fair,
Perfection in manners and temper,
With hearts all unsaddened by care—
That, when the time comes for their choosing
Life partners in sorrows and joys,
We can look round with critical eyes, and
Take our pick of the other folks' boys.

Gen. Hart and His Railroad

In accordance with the desire of the board of twon trustees, General Wm. H. H. Hart appeared before the Merchants' Board of Trade Thursday evening to ascertain from that body its wishes as to where he should run his proposed road through town.

As originallyplanned he would avoid running on Main street, but he and the town trustees had been advised that there was a sentiment favoring a road down Main street, and so the matter was referred to the merchants for consideration. Mr. Hart went into detail before the business men and explained fully his plans in all their bearings, and answered fully all the questions asked of him. After he had fully stated his views he retired and left the matter with the assembled merchants for discussion and decision in the privacy of their meeting. After going over the question the board voted that they recommend to the town trustees that at this time whatever franchise they deemed it best to grant Mr. Hart be along the line proposed by him and not to run down Main street, which would necessarily mean a curve at A street, the only intersecting street from the depot.

Damage Suit Dismissed

The damage suit of Alexander Dovin Sr. father of Alexander Dovin Jr. who was killed in a prize fight at Colma last February, against Sheriff Mansfield was practically dismissed in the Superior Court yesterday by Judge Gesford of Napa. Mr. Dovin brought the suit for damages in the sum of $10,000 alleging that the sheriff was responsible for the death of his boy, who was under age and engaged in a prize fight that was against the law Mansfield demurred to the complaint. The judge sustained the demurrer on the grounds that young Dovin willfully entered the ring knowing that he was committing an unlawful act and that the officer was not responsible for the results. The plaintiff was given ten days to file a new complaint, if so advised. W. A. Johnson and Dovin engaged in a prize fight at the Colma club and after a few rounds of hard fighting the latter received a blow on the heart from which he died in a few moments. It is barely possible that a new complaint will be filed.

Old Kirks as Usual Win

The baseball game between the Old Kirks and the San Mateo's on on the local grounds looked anything but favorable for Redwood in the first few innings but the local boys pulled themselves together and got in some good work. There was considerable betting with San Mateo on the long end until Oscar Comper went into the play in the 6th. With his advent into the contest a turn for the better was noticed in the playing of the Old Kirks and amid shouting as only the old time games could produce, the home team made enough runs to land them on the safe side. At the end of the firsthalf of the ninth inning the score stood 11-10 for Redwood, and the old Kirks had won the county championship.

Accidental Death the Verdict

Thecoroner's jury called upon to pass upon the death of little Harry Peacock at the Cod Fish Packing Works last week met at the town hall Wednesday evening and after listening to testimony in regard to that unfortunate affair, brought in a verdict of accidental death.

Roy W. Cloud announces himself a candidate for the office of superintendent of schools subject to the decision of the Republican convention. He is a Stanford graduate and a deep student. Mr. Cloud has a wide circle of acquaintances in the county and should he be fortunate in securing the nomination he will be elected by a large plurality.

Don't Delay Registering

There are just sixteen days remain- ing in which the electors of the county must register. Those who do not register cannot vote. There is up to date less than 50 per cent of the total vote registered. It is time the voters were waking up; if thy do not move lively many will fail to regis- ter and become disfranchised. The county clerk has deputies in every precinct and will himself work over- time to accommodate those who can not call at his office during the day.

Letters of Guardianship

Josephine Fromhertz has applied in the Superior Court for letters of guardianship upon the estates and persons of Edward, Theodore, Cath- erine and Irene Fromhertz, minors. Their estate consists of 6.81 acres of land, a portion of the Corte Madera rancho, Portola valued at $1500. The annual rent from the land is $80.

Nests of Pleasant Thoughts

"Make yourselves nests of pleasant thoughts," counsels Ruskin. Bright fancies, satisfied memories, noble histories, faithful sayings, treasure houses of restful and precious thoughts which care cannot disturb or pain make gloomy or poverty take away from us—houses built without hands for our souls to live in—these things are not for earth alone; they are a part of the treasure that may be sent over.

Every one is familiar with the phenomenon of echoes. In a cave in the Pantheon the guide, by striking the fap of his coat, makes a noise equa to a tweve pound cannon's report. The singularity is noticed in a esser degree in the Mammoth cave in Kentucky. In the cave of Smellin, near Viborg, in Finland, a cat or dog thrown in will make a screaming echo lasting some minutes.
